Department of Biostatistics
Tenure-Track Faculty Positions

The Department of Biostatistics in the Graduate School of Public Health at the University of Pittsburgh seeks applicants for two tenure-track positions at the assistant, associate, and/or professor level, to begin in fall 2012 or earlier. We seek outstanding individuals with a commitment to methodological and collaborative research, and teaching. We have particular interest in candidates with research expertise in several areas including, but not limited to, clinical trials, comparative effectiveness, longitudinal data analysis, and observational studies. For further information, please go to www.biostat.pitt.edu.

Formal review of applications will begin December 1, 2011 and continue until the positions are filled. Rank and salary will be determined by the candidate's credentials. New PhDs and postdoctoral fellows are encouraged to apply. Candidates should submit a letter of application, a statement of research and teaching interests, and a curriculum vitae. Candidates should also arrange for three reference letters to be submitted. Electronic applications are preferred and should be sent to biost@pitt.edu. Applications may also be submitted via mail to: University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health Department of Biostatistics; Biostatistics Faculty Search Committee; Howard Rockette, PhD; 130 DeSoto Street; Pittsburgh, PA 15261.

The University of Pittsburgh is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer.
Women and minority candidates are especially encouraged to apply.
