

The Longwood Campus Mothers' Rooms are private, comfortable spaces available to all Harvard Longwood Area women to use for breastfeeding or expressing breast milk.

The Rooms are equipped with Medela "Lactina Select" pumps. We also provide information about using the pumps, where to purchase your necessary personal accessories, books and pamphlets about breastfeeding, and contact numbers for professional lactation consultants who can provide problem solving and education.

Harvard School of Public Health Mothers' Rooms locations:

- * Kresge Building, 677 Huntington Avenue
Room G11A, Ground Level
- * FXB Building, 651 Huntington Avenue
Room G01
- * Landmark Center, 401 Park Drive
Room 043A, 3rd Floor East

Harvard Medical School and Dental School Mothers' Rooms locations:

- * Tosteson MEC, 260 Longwood Avenue
Room 147b
- * New Research Building (NRB), 77 Avenue Louis Pasteur
Room 260b, Department of Genetics
- * Harvard School of Dental Medicine, 188 Longwood Avenue
Room 005, Lower Level
- * Harvard Institutes of Medicine (HIM), 4 Blackfan Circle (accessible from the NRB, 77 Avenue Louis Pasteur, in the Women's Room near the doors to HIM from Elements Café)
Room 1C4

If you have questions concerning the Mother's Rooms, contact The Office of Work and Family at 617 432-1615

*Locations may change due to space availability