

Someone you love was murdered

The Survivors Outreach Services would like to extend our support during this most difficult time.

We can help answer your questions with:

What To Do After You Leave The Hospital?

You don't have to go through this alone

Call us at 617.825.1917

A program of the Louis D. Brown Peace Institute
1452 Dorchester Avenue, 2nd floor, Dorchester, MA 02122

A member of the Survivors for Violence Prevention, a National Coalition, The Harvard Youth
Violence Prevention Center and Cooperative Metropolitan Ministries
Email: survivorsofcrime@hotmail.com

When You No Longer Feel God's Hand in Yours, We'll hold It

Until You Do.

FRONT

The Survivors Outreach Services can assist you with:

- Avoiding expensive funeral costs
- Coordinating your initial support network
- Connecting to the community crisis response team
- Assisting in completing the Victim Compensation application
- Preparing the obituary and funeral program
- Assisting in locating a private space for gathering after the funeral
- Navigating and understanding the criminal justice system
- Providing a safe environment for you and your family while providing resources and emotional support to assist you with your grief
- Empowering you and your family to work within the community to provide a safe environment

Our services are confidential and free of charge to survivors and the families of homicide victims

BACK