

The Program on International Health and Human Rights Presents:

HIV and Violence: the Deadly Intersection

Two Part Series on the Intersections of HIV/AIDS and Violence Against Women

PART I HIV and Violence: Dual Epidemics

Tuesday, April 24th 2007
6:00-7:30pm

Introduction to the Dual Epidemics of HIV and Violence

Ndizvzo Zvandiri – “That is What I Am”: a short film from Zimbabwe, introduced by Anna Miller, MPH Candidate at the Harvard School of Public Health

A presentation by Professor Sofia Gruskin and Shahira Ahmed summarizing some recent work of the Program on International Health and Human Rights and its partners exploring these linkages

Population Center Conference Room, 9 Bow St

PART II HIV and Violence: Commitment into Action

Monday, April 30th 2007
5:30-7:00pm

Moving Forward

Susana Fried, introducing the Women Won't Wait Campaign and “Show Us the Money: Is Violence Against Women on the HIV&AIDS Donor Agenda?” a report exploring the actions (or lack of) by international organizations in addressing the intersections between HIV and violence

Students from HSPH will present a strategic policy analysis of the issues for major global health agencies to consider in going forward

Harvard School of Public Health, FXB G-12

This series is co-sponsored by the HSPH AIDS Tank, the Program on International Health and Human Rights and the Interdisciplinary Working Group on Women, Gender and Health

A light dinner will be served.

For more information or questions contact: Jessie Evans, jjevans@hsph.harvard.edu or 617-432-4314