Employee Reports of Steps Their Companies Took When Responding to the H1N1 Flu Outbreak (I)

% saying their company...

Harvard Opinion Research Program, Harvard School of Public Health, April 21 - May 13, 2010.

Employee Reports of Steps Their Companies Took When Responding to the H1N1 Flu Outbreak (II)

% saying their company...

Created back-up system for someone to cover work if they got sick or were absent because had H1N1 or flu-like symptoms		42%
Provided information about changes to sick leave policies that would make it easier for employees to stay home from work because sick		42%
Provided information about changes to leave policies that would make it easier for employees to stay home because a family member sick	3	8%
Provided information about changes to leave policies that would make it easier for employees to stay home because children's school closed	36	%
Trained them to cover for someone else if they got sick or had to be absent due to H1N1 or flu-like symptoms	36	%
Provided information about how company would keep running if many employees were absent because they were sick or had to care for others	35%	/0