

Career Trajectories in Public Health: Global Health Diplomacy

Moderated by Rashad Massoud, MD, MPH, FACP,
Visiting Faculty

Ayako Okuhama, MD, MPH, is an incoming technical officer for the Health Emergency Programme, Infectious Hazard Preparedness Unit, Eastern-Mediterranean Regional Office, World Health Organization. Ayako was previously based in the WHO Kuwait country office, which supports country partners with technical assistance in accordance with country support plans developed in partnership with the ministry of health.

Tamar Tchelidze, MD, MPH, is a disease area partner at Medical and Scientific Affairs, Roche Diagnostics. She was previously a senior policy fellow at UC Berkeley, a counsellor at the Permanent Mission of Georgia to the UN, and the First Secretary of the Embassy of Georgia in Washington, DC. Tamar has a strong reputation for her ability to bring together international and domestic partners to plan and execute efficient and effective public health initiatives.

1 – 2 pm
Friday, February 2
Via Zoom