

After a multi-year hiatus due to the COVID-19 pandemic, GHP's Global Health Week returns March 27 to 31, 2023. This year's celebrations coincide with the 60th anniversary of the Department's founding. The full schedule of events and additional information are included below and on the Global Health Week 2023 website.

GHP@60 and Global Health Week: Call for Abstracts

Current Harvard students and postdoctoral fellows are invited to submit poster presentation on global health and population studies. Submission details are available here. Submit all abstracts via email to gph@hsph.harvard.edu by Wednesday, March 15, 2023, 11:59pm Eastern.

GHP@60: Symposium on Global Health Security

GHP is celebrating its 60th anniversary with a symposium on global health security. Symposium agenda and speaker bios are available online, and a streaming link will be provided closer to March 28.

Tuesday, March 28

2:00 – 6:00pm

Kresge Cafeteria (677 Huntington Avenue, Boston)

Registration: hsph.me/ghp60

GHP Faculty Debate: Globally determined principles for allocating limited vaccines - do they work?

Richard Cash, senior lecturer on global health and Muhammad Pate, Julio Frenk Professor of the Practice of Public Health Leadership, will debate the question “globally determined principles for allocating limited vaccines – do they work?” Allison Portnoy, postdoctoral research fellow in the Center for Health Decision Science, will moderate.

Wednesday, March 29

1:00 – 2:00pm

Building 1, 1208 (665 Huntington Avenue, Boston)

Registration: hsph.me/facdebate23

HARVARD T.H. CHAN SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH
Department of Global Health and Population

Thursday Brown Bag Seminar Series

Sian H. Tsuei, MHSc, MD, CCFP
Doctoral Candidate, PhD in Population Health Sciences, Global Health and Population Field, Health Systems Specialization, Harvard University

How hospitals' goal setting, feedback, and process standardization capacity impact provider payment reforms

March 30, 2023
1:00 PM - 2:00 PM ET
Via Zoom

Scan Here to Join

Web: http://hsph.me/AB_CFP

Brown Bag Seminar

This week's Brown Bag Seminar will be held on Zoom and feature Sian Tsuei, MHSc, MD, CCFP, Doctoral Candidate, PhD in Population Health Sciences, Global Health and Population Field, Health Systems Specialization, Harvard University. Sian will present a talk titled "How hospitals' goal setting, feedback, and process standardization capacity impact provider payment reforms."

Thursday, March 30

1:00 – 2:00pm

Via Zoom

Join Zoom here

HARVARD T.H. CHAN SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH
Department of Global Health and Population

OUT OF BREATH
FILM SCREENING AND MODERATED DISCUSSION

Awarded as the Best Documentary at the 71st All True International Documentary Film Festival (2022), "Out of Breath" approaches the COVID-19 pandemic from the perspective of the caregivers, revealing the human face of a collective battle against COVID-19 in Brazilian public health system. Film screening will be followed by discussion with Helena Petta, director of Out of Breath and Lemann Visiting Scholar, moderated by Richard Cash, senior lecturer on global health.

THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 2023
5:00 – 8:00PM
5 – 5:30PM: RECEPTION
5:30 – 8PM: SCREENING AND DISCUSSION
BUILDING 1, ROOM 1208

SCAN HERE TO REGISTER
<http://hsph.me/outofbreath>

Co-sponsored by the Department of Global Health and Population and the Student Student Association at Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health

Out of Breath: Film Screening and Moderated Discussion

Join us for an in-person screening of the documentary "Out of Breath," which approaches the COVID-19 pandemic from the perspective of the caregivers in the Brazilian public health system. Film screening will be followed by discussion with director Helena Petta and senior lecturer on global health Richard Cash.

Thursday, March 30

5:00 – 8:00pm (screening begins at 5:30pm)

Building 1, 1208 (665 Huntington Avenue, Boston)

Registration: hsph.me/outofbreath