

Connect The Community

Jean Dolin

November 16, 2017

Jean Dolin - Ambassador for Health.

Goal:

Develop a sustainable and effective platform /way to inform and engage residents on Health and Housing Policies.

Promoting civic engagement and education support.

Boston Alliance for Community Health's mission.

Unite institutions for the well being of Boston residents.

Aims & Target population

Aim:

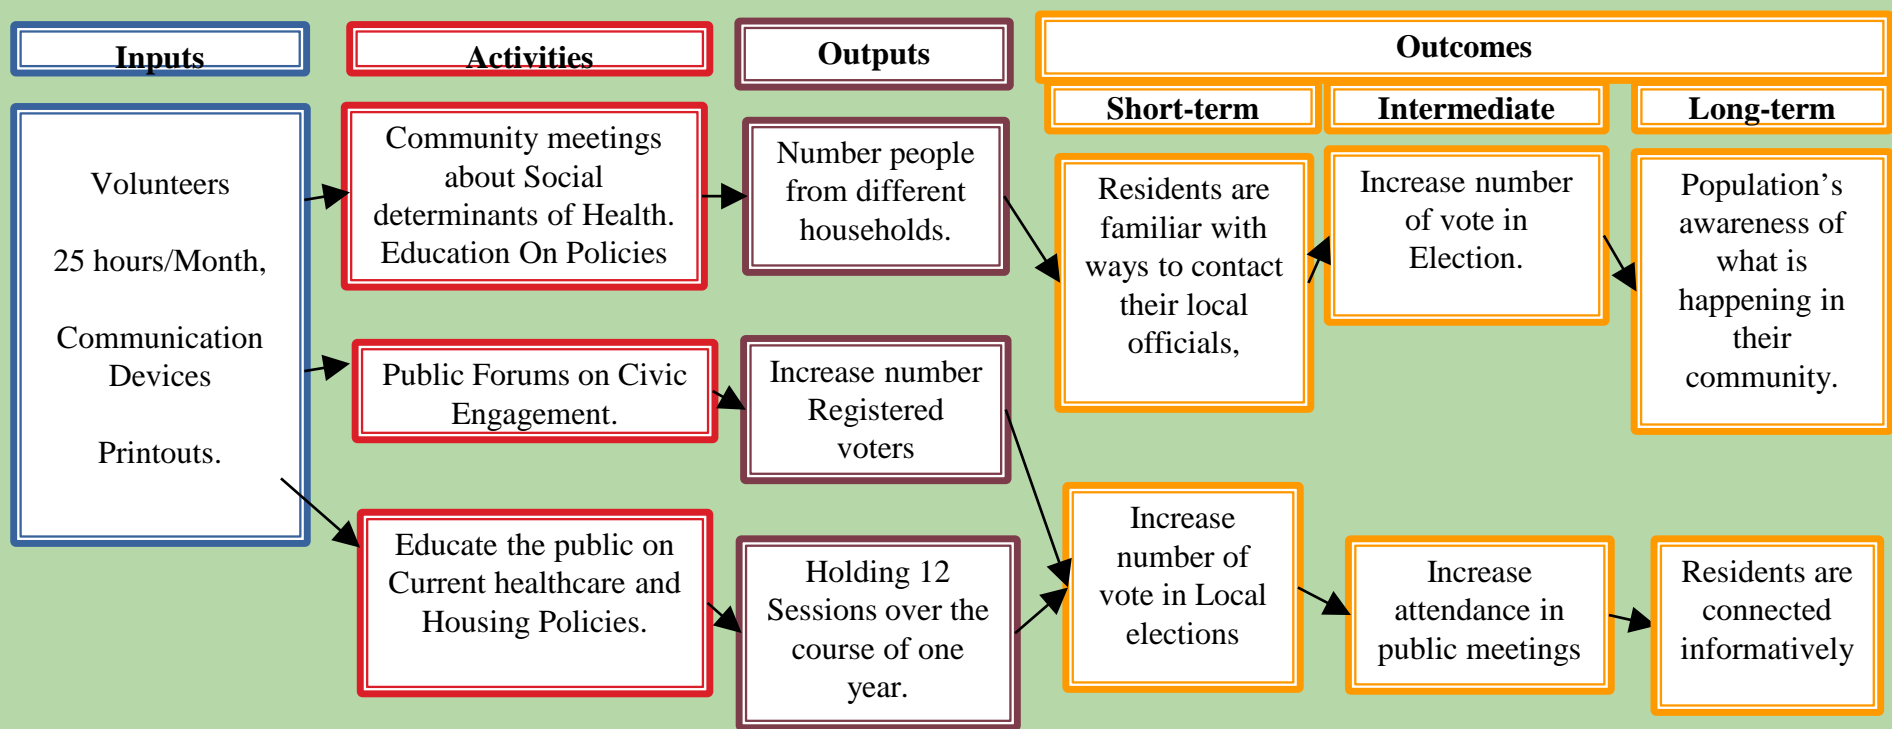

Create Effective Method of Communicating Policies with Residents.

Create Civic Engagement Programs & Awareness Education Development

Target population

Families of immigrants backgrounds, both genders 21 plus.

All Residents of Dorchester MA

Inputs

Activities

Outputs

Outcomes

Short-term

Intermediate

Long-term

Volunteers
25 hours/Month,
Communication Devices
Printouts.

Community meetings about Social determinants of Health. Education On Policies

Public Forums on Civic Engagement.

Educate the public on Current healthcare and Housing Policies.

Number people from different households.

Increase number Registered voters

Holding 12 Sessions over the course of one year.

Residents are familiar with ways to contact their local officials,

Increase number of vote in Local elections

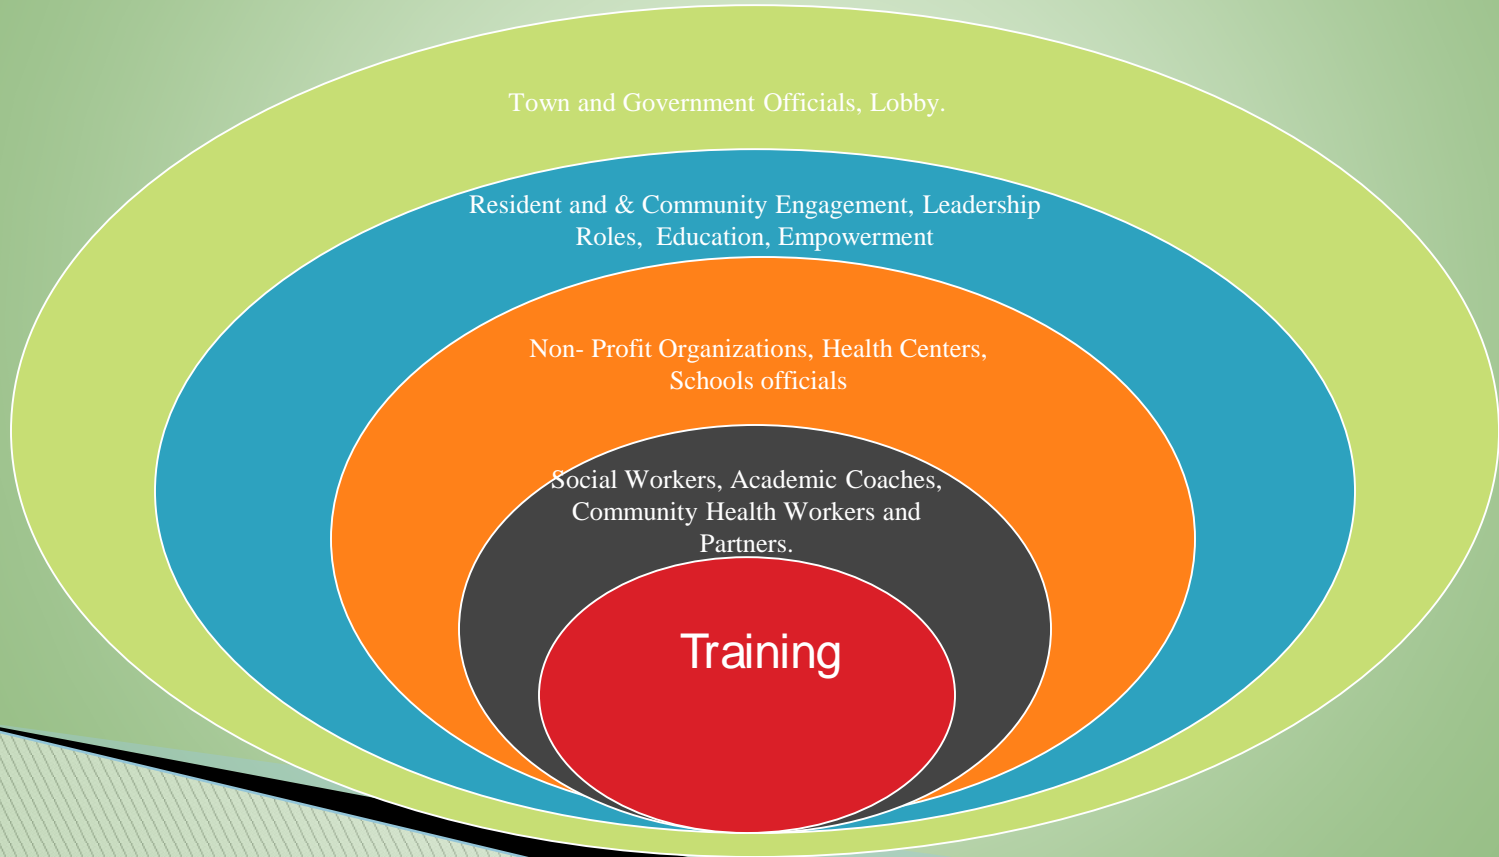

Increase number of vote in Election.

Increase attendance in public meetings

Population's awareness of what is happening in their community.

Residents are connected informatively

Social Ecological Model

Initiatives

Communication and Education

Action Steps : Writing a letter to the elected officials of my neighborhood.

Engage with BACH Various Groups and other Community Based Organizations

Volunteer on Different Projects with Different Organizations.

Attend Neighborhood meetings, Conferences and Forums.

Connect with people, work with the people and help the people moving forward.

As an Ambassador for Health my purpose is to: Create an effective method of informing the community and raise awareness around the different things that are happening around education, healthcare and housing. My activities include but not limited to Training myself, attend meetings, canvass my neighborhood with information, allocate volunteers, plan and run events. So that I can create provide of residents with useful knowledge and tools to become active member of their community