

howilivewithcancer.com

6 Sep 2023

Wednesday

1:00PM to 1:50PM

PRESENTATION:

Impact Filmmaking As A Tool For Public Health Change

HOSTS: Center for Health Communication | Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health
Harvard Humanitarian Initiative

VENUE: Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health, Kresge Building, Room G2

Lunch will be served.*

Discover how films can create awareness, inspire action, and bring about positive transformations in public health.

Register here to get your free ticket!

Registration is required. Open to all HSPH and HMS affiliates.*

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/presentation-impact-filmmaking-as-a-tool-for-public-health-change-tickets-689919426577?aff=oddtcreator>

SPEAKERS

Meghan Shea, MFA
Director / Producer,
Persistent Productions

Iri Albanti, DrPH, MPH, MA
Consulting Producer, How I Live
Executive Director, Harvard Humanitarian Initiative
Lecturer, Harvard T. H. Chan School of Public Health, Health Policy & Management
Lecturer, Harvard Medical School, Emergency Medicine

Soad Fuentes-Alabi, MD, MPH'16
Scientific Director of El Salvador National Childhood Cancer Program and Population-Based Pediatric Cancer Registry (ROPESAL) Ayudame a Vivir Foundation and National Children's Hospital Benjamin Bloom