Welcome, brief introductions

One new person. Welcome Andi, MPH-65, Health Policy and Management!

Claudia Jones, from Trinidad and Tobago, involved in leftist organizing. The only Black person who was charged for doing this organizing. Was going to be deported, Trinidad wouldn’t take her, so she was sent to the U.K. She organized the first Notting Hill Carnival. Black solidarity in the face of white supremacist attacks. She’s suddenly being recognized everywhere. She gave a 1950s speech on International Women’s Day. Nancy will be making a link to this, how Claudia was making intersectional analyses, and updating her IWD speech to the current events.

Nancy will put the song lyrics on the screen or in the chat so that everyone can see each other.
