World Cancer Day 2013: Responding to the Challenge, Dispelling the Myths

Please join us February 1st to promote World Cancer Day. The event will include presentations by global health experts, a student panel, personal testimonies and videos.

In collaboration with the Union for International Cancer Control, the event aims to raise awareness around cancer as a global priority and to collect signatures for the International Declaration Against Cancer.

Sign the declaration right from your mobile device!