

Seatbelt Safety Law Reference List

Carpenter CS and Stehr M. The effects of mandatory seatbelt laws on seatbelt use, motor vehicle fatalities, and crash-related injuries among youth. Journal of Health Economics. 2008; 27(3):642-662.

Farmer CM and Williams AF. Effect on fatality risk of changing from secondary to primary seat belt enforcement. Journal of Safety Research. 2005; 36(2): 189-194.

Liu C, Linsey T, Chen CL, et al. States with primary enforcement laws have lower fatality rates. Traffic Safety Facts Research Note. February 2006. www.nhtsa.dot.gov.

Rivara FP, Thompson MS, Cummings P. Effectiveness of primary and secondary enforced seat belt laws. American Journal of Preventive Medicine. 1999; 16(1):30-39.

Shults RA, Elder RW, Sleet DA, et al. Primary enforcement seat belt laws are effective even in the face of rising belt use rates. Accident Analysis and Prevention. 2004; 36(3):491-493.

Shults RA, Nichols JL, Dihn-Zarr TB, et al. Effectiveness of primary enforcement safety belt laws and enhanced enforcement of safety belt laws: a summary of the Guide to Community Preventive Services systematic reviews. Journal of Safety Research. 2004; 35(2):189-196.