

April 25, 2013

Kiosk

Department of Global Health and Population celebrates 50 years

On April 24, members of the department and colleagues gathered to celebrate five decades of teaching, research, and field work at the GHP@50 Anniversary Symposium. Watch sessions.

Larry Brilliant named 2013 Commencement speaker

Physician, epidemiologist, philanthropist, and technologist Larry Brilliant, president and CEO of the Skoll Global Threats Fund, is this year's Commencement speaker. His public health career includes helping run a successful smallpox eradication program in South Asia.

Live webcast Friday The Boston Marathon Bombings: Lessons Learned for Saving Lives

This Forum event, focused primarily on the immediate aftermath of the bombings, will reveal the sometimes surprising underpinnings of a successful emergency preparedness system.

Around the School

Video: Students study

Event Highlights

Symposium on Urbanism, Spirituality & Well-being: Contemporary Trends

event sponsored by HSPH's Center for Health and the Global Environment
May 2, 5:15-6:45 PM
Science Center Lecture Hall A, Harvard University
free and open to the public

Dean's Distinguished Lecture book presentation To Repair the World: Paul Farmer Speaks to the Next Generation

Keynote speaker: Paul Farmer, Kolokotrones University Professor of Global Health and Social Medicine, with remarks from Wafaie Fawzi, chair, Department of Global Health and Population, and Dean Julio Frenk
May 9, 4:00-5:00 PM
Kresge G2
Reception to follow

Event calendar >

What do you love about HSPH?

In honor of HSPH's centennial year, we are asking people from across the School's community to share what they love about HSPH.

Responses may be published in an upcoming issue of Harvard Public Health magazine or on the HSPH website. Submit response

electronic health records implementation in China

HSPH students recently traveled to Shanghai on a Winter Session trip sponsored by the School's China Initiative.

Video: The high cost of neglecting world's poorest children

This April 16 Forum event examined the social and economic "cost of inaction" of failing to address the needs of children.

HSPH-led research to quantify economic costs of stunted child cognitive development in resource-poor countries

The research team hopes to use the project to engage with policy makers and practitioners.

Friday: Final HSPH Earth Week event

What have we learned to protect honeybees from colony collapse disorder since 2006? Speaker: Alex Lu, associate professor of environmental exposure biology

April 26, 12:30-1:30 PM, FXB G1

Call for papers: Risk, Perception, and Response Conference

The Harvard Center for Risk Analysis is soliciting papers for its upcoming conference. Abstracts are due June 10.

Centennial Moments

Successes, stories, and surprising facts as the School approaches its 2013-2014 centennial.

Philip Drinker, polio, and that "damn machine"

More Centennial Moments >

Research News

Cell phone data mining dubbed "breakthrough technology"

U.S. standards for 'safe' limits of PFCs in drinking water appear too high for children